

Future Tenses – Exercise Sheet 2

Exercise 1: Conversation Exercise – Future Tenses ("Will" Only)

Use alternative Future tenses to replace 'will' where another tense is more suitable.

James: Hey Sally! What will you do this weekend?

Sally: Hi James! I will visit my grandparents on Saturday. How about you?

James: I will go to a football match with my dad. It will start at 3 p.m.

Sally: That sounds fun! Oh, I just remembered! I will buy a new laptop tomorrow.

James: Nice! Do you need help choosing one?

Sally: No thanks, my brother will help me. He knows a lot about computers.

James: Oh, by the way, have you heard? Anna will move to Spain next year!

Sally: Really? I didn't know that! I think she will love it there.

James: Yeah! She told me she will leave in July.

Sally: That's exciting! I will call her later to ask more about it.

James: Good idea! Maybe we will meet her before she goes.

Sally: Yes! Let's plan something soon. I will text her right now.

James: Perfect! I will ask Mark if he wants to join us too.

Sally: Great! I'm sure it will be a lot of fun.

James: Yes, it will be a great way to say goodbye!
