

Prepositions 1 – Worksheet 1 - ANSWERS

Exercise 1: Prepositions of Place – The Bedroom (Answers)

Exercise 1: Gap-Fill – Prepositions of Place (Answers)

1. The unmade blanket is lying on the bed.
2. There is a pile of books on the desk.
3. A chair is positioned in front of the desk.
4. The backpack is leaning against the desk.
5. There are some clothes scattered on the floor.
6. The nightstand is placed beside/next to the bed, holding a lamp.
7. The wardrobe is standing between the window and the chair.
8. Some posters are hanging above the bed on the wall.
9. A small rug is spread under the bed near the floor.
10. The lamp is sitting on the nightstand beside/next to the bed.

Key Takeaways:

- ✓ "On" is used for surfaces.
 - ✓ "Under" means below something.
 - ✓ "Next to / Beside" means close to something.
 - ✓ "Between" is for something in the middle of two objects.
 - ✓ "Above" means higher than something but not touching it.
-

Exercise 2: Prepositions of Time – In, On, At (Answers)

1. My birthday is in July. ✓ (Months use "in")
2. We always go on holiday in the summer. ✓ (Seasons use "in")
3. The meeting starts at 9:00 AM. ✓ (Exact times use "at")
4. She was born in 2005. ✓ (Years use "in")
5. I have an appointment with the doctor on Monday. ✓ (Days of the week use "on")
6. They always go to the park on Sundays. ✓ (Specific days use "on")
7. We met in the morning before work. ✓ (Parts of the day use "in")
8. The train leaves at noon. ✓ (Specific times use "at")
9. Christmas is in December. ✓ (Months use "in")
10. The concert is on Friday evening. ✓ (Specific days + "morning/afternoon/evening" use "on")

Key Takeaways:

- ✓ "In" is for longer periods (months, years, centuries, parts of the day).
- ✓ "On" is for specific days and dates.
- ✓ "At" is for exact times and specific points in the day (e.g., "at midnight").