

(un)Countable Nouns and Quantifiers – Worksheet 1

Exercise 1: Fill in the Gaps (Choosing the Correct Quantifier)

Instructions: Fill in the blanks using a, an, some, any, much, many, a few, a little, no, none, enough, plenty of.

1. There isn't _____ time left before the train leaves.
 2. She has _____ close friends in the city.
 3. I'd love _____ coffee, please.
 4. We don't have _____ sugar in the cupboard.
 5. I bought _____ apples at the market this morning.
 6. There were _____ people at the meeting—only three showed up!
 7. I have _____ experience in marketing, so I applied for the job.
 8. We don't have _____ chairs for everyone to sit.
 9. They gave us _____ information about the course.
 10. There is _____ milk left, so we need to buy more.
-

Exercise 2: Multiple Choice (Choosing the Correct Quantifier)

Instructions: Choose the correct answer.

1. I didn't have _____ time to finish the project.
a) a few
b) much
c) many
2. We bought _____ oranges at the market.
a) a little
b) much
c) a few
3. She had _____ trouble finding the address.
a) a little
b) a few
c) many

4. There aren't _____ books in the library today.
 - a) a lot
 - b) many
 - c) much
5. Would you like _____ tea?
 - a) some
 - b) any
 - c) much
6. I have _____ ideas about the new project.
 - a) much
 - b) a few
 - c) a little
7. There is _____ information available on this topic.
 - a) a few
 - b) much
 - c) many
8. We have _____ money left after the holiday.
 - a) no
 - b) none
 - c) some
9. I need _____ help with my homework.
 - a) many
 - b) some
 - c) few
10. There is _____ milk in the fridge—you'll have to buy some.
 - a) no
 - b) a few
 - c) many