(un)Countable Nouns and Quantifiers - Worksheet 2

 Exercise 1: Sentence Correction

Instructions: The following sentences contain mistakes with quantifiers. Rewrite the sentences correctly.

1.	X	I have much friends in my class.
2.		There are a little books on the table.
3.	×	He doesn't have no time to help us.
4.		She drank a few water before leaving.
5.	X	We have none apples left in the fridge.
6.	X	There isn't a many sugar in my coffee.
7.		They gave me no informations about the event.
8.		Could you give me any advice on this?
9.	X	There is many traffic on the road today.
10.	X	I don't have some money left.

Exercise 2: Transformation (Using Quantifiers)

Instructions: Rewrite the sentences using the correct quantifier. Keep the meaning the same.

1.	There isn't a lot of water left in the bottle.
	→ There is only water left.
2.	She has a small number of close friends.
	→ She has close friends.
3.	We don't have any chairs available.
	→ We have chairs available.
4.	He drank a small amount of coffee before leaving.
	→ He drank coffee before leaving.
5.	I don't have enough information to decide.
	→ I have information to decide.
6.	There are very few opportunities in this town.
	→ There aren't opportunities in this town.
7.	We still have some time before the train leaves.
	→ We still have time before the train leaves.
8.	I need more time to finish my work.
	→ I don't have time to finish my work.
9.	She received very little support from her colleagues.
	→ She didn't receive support from her colleagues.
10. The guests at the party were very few.
	→ There were only guests at the party.	