

Gerund and Infinitive – Worksheet 2

Exercise 1: Sentence Transformation – Gerund & Infinitive Uses

Instructions: Rewrite each sentence using the correct gerund or infinitive form. The first five sentences have instructions to help you.

- To travel is something I love. (Rewrite using a gerund as the subject)
→ _____ is something I love.
 - She went to the store because she wanted to buy some milk. (Rewrite using "to" for purpose)
→ She went to the store _____ some milk.
 - He was excited that he passed the exam. (Rewrite using "be + adjective + infinitive")
→ He was excited _____ the exam.
 - Learning new skills is important. (Rewrite using "it + be + adjective")
→ It is important _____ new skills.
 - He apologized because he arrived late. (Rewrite using a gerund after a preposition)
→ He apologized _____ late.
 - She finds it difficult that she speaks English fluently.
→ She finds it difficult _____ English fluently.
 - To become a doctor is my dream.
→ My dream is _____ a doctor.
 - I went to the café because I wanted to meet some friends.
→ I went to the café _____ some friends.
 - He is good at playing tennis.
→ He is good at _____ tennis.
 - She was afraid that she would fail the test.
→ She was afraid _____ the test.
-

Exercise 2: Error Correction – Gerunds & Infinitives

Instructions: Each sentence has one mistake. Find and correct the mistakes.

1. To swim is good for your health.
2. He enjoys to play the guitar.
3. She is interested to learn new languages.
4. We went to the mall for buying some clothes.
5. My goal is become a successful writer.
6. I can't help to laugh when I watch comedy movies.
7. He apologized to be late to the meeting.
8. She is afraid from failing her driving test.
9. I look forward to see you soon.
10. It's important learning a second language.

Exercise 3: Gap Fill – Gerunds & Infinitives in Conversation

Complete the conversation using the correct form of the verb in brackets (gerund or infinitive).

Javier: Hey Sarah! Do you have any plans for the summer?

Sarah: Yes! I'm planning _____ (travel) to Italy with my family.

Javier: That sounds amazing! I've always wanted _____ (visit) Italy.

Sarah: You should go! It's a great place _____ (explore) history and culture.

Javier: I know, but it's difficult _____ (find) cheap flights during the summer.

Sarah: Yeah, I understand. I recommend _____ (book) tickets early.

Javier: That's a good idea. I was thinking about _____ (take) a road trip instead.

Sarah: That could be fun! I love _____ (drive) through different places and discovering new things.

Javier: Me too! But my parents expect me _____ (get) a summer job.

Sarah: I had a summer job last year. It helped me _____ (save) money for my trip.

Javier: That makes sense. I should probably start _____ (look) for one soon.

Sarah: Well, whatever you decide _____ (do), make sure you enjoy it!

Javier: Definitely! Summer is the best time _____ (relax) and try new things.