

Participle Clauses Worksheet 1

Exercise 1: Gap-Fill (Choosing the Correct Participle Clause Structure)

Instructions: Complete each sentence using the correct participle clause form (present participle, past participle, having + past participle, or preposition + present participle).

1. _____ the news, she immediately called her parents. (hear)
 2. _____ on the table, the book was easy to find. (place)
 3. _____ all the evidence, the jury made their decision. (consider)
 4. _____ from a rare illness, he required constant medical attention. (suffer)
 5. _____ for years, she finally mastered the violin. (practice)
 6. _____ with the new software, the employees quickly adapted. (train)
 7. _____ in a hurry, she forgot her wallet at home. (leave)
 8. _____ for his bravery, the soldier received a medal. (reward)
 9. _____ his mistake, he quickly apologised. (realise)
 10. _____ to the concert, they stopped for coffee. (go)
-

Exercise 2: Error Correction (Fixing Mistakes in Participle Clauses)

Instructions: Each sentence below contains a mistake with participle clauses. Identify and correct the mistakes.

1.  Having being advised by her doctor, she went to bed early.

2.  Completed the project, they took a vacation.

3.  Knowing that he was wrong, a new plan was made.

4.  After graduate from university, he moved to Paris.

5.  Having eat breakfast, they started their journey.

6.  Built last year, the company is already successful.

7.  While watch TV, I made dinner.

8.  Having saw the mistake, she corrected it.

9.  Confuse by the instructions, he asked for help.

10.  After finishing my homework, I have watched TV.

